CLINTON SAVINGS BANK PROMOTES LISA A. POIRIER TO VICE PRESIDENT – CONTROLLER

CLINTON, Mass., (January 1, 2020) - Clinton Savings Bank (CSB) announced the promotion of Lisa A. Poirier, to the role of Vice President (VP), Controller. In her role as VP, Controller, Poirier is responsible for preparing the monthly, quarterly, and annual financial statements, calculating the Allowance for Loan Losses (ALLL), preparing the annual Budget, and preparing and analyzing Liquidity and the Asset / Liability Management reports.

“Ms. Poirier has been an integral part of the CSB team since she began working here in 1998,” said Richard R. Hayward, Jr., EVP/Chief Financial Officer/Treasurer, “furthermore, she has continuously shown her commitment to learning the inner workings of all departments within CSB and has impressed us for over 20 years with her advanced knowledge of accounting and finance, her passion to learn, and her on-going dedication to her work.”

Poirier holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting from Fitchburg State University. Poirier started at CSB as a Teller, which eventually lead her to the Accounting Department as the Accounting Clerk. Shortly thereafter she was promoted to Staff Accountant followed by Accounting Supervisor. Poirier was later promoted to Assistant VP, Controller and now holds the title of VP, Controller.

When she is not here at CSB, Poirier enjoys reading, watching movies, and spending time with her dog Harley and her daughter Sabrina. Additionally, since adopting Harley at the Sterling Animal Shelter, she often donates to the shelter as well as to other various charities through CSB’s programs.
