CLINTON SAVINGS BANK DONATES $1,500 FOR THE FIFTH YEAR TO PROTECT EXOTIC ANIMALS

(CLINTON, Mass., December 27, 2024) – For the fifth year in a row, Clinton Savings Bank donated $1,500.00 to continue its support of Animal Adventures in Bolton, MA. The exotic animal rescue’s mission is to provide a home to unwanted and unable to be cared for animals. The funds donated will allow for sustained instructive nature educational sessions offered to many schools, libraries, and colleges. The classes and tours of their facilities connect people of all ages to their natural world through educational hands-on experiences to promote curiosity, exploration, and knowledge.

“Thanks to another year of Clinton Savings Bank’s support, our communities get to experience the thrill of nature that both inspires and informs. At this year’s visit Robert J. Paulhus, Jr., President & CEO of the Bank, took a turn feeding Sid the Sloth,” said Chris Geary, General Manager. “Sloths are from South America and spend most of their lives in the same tree/canopy area. Some will even live their whole life in one tree. They thrive in hot humid climates, so the Amazon rainforest is perfect for them. They are herbivores and eat mostly leaves.”

About Animal Adventures

Animal Adventures is an exotic animal rescue organization founded by Ed and Brenda Laquidara in 1997 in Bolton, MA. Their mission is to save animals by providing a safe and healthy environment that preserves and nourishes life that may otherwise become extinct due to environmental forces.
