CLINTON SAVINGS BANK SUPPORTS HANDS ON NATURE

(CLINTON, Mass., September 4, 2018) – Clinton Savings Bank recently donated five hundred dollars, for the eighth consecutive year, to support the Berlin based, Hands On Nature’s Summer Program. The outdoor nature educational sessions are conducted for preschool and elementary school children in the Central Massachusetts area to promote curiosity, exploration and knowledge.

“Thanks to the support of Clinton Savings Bank, local children get to experience the excitement of nature that both inspires and informs. Every year we look forward to CSB’s visit and this time, we were especially proud to show off the new nets they helped purchase for our Frog Pond adventures” said Heather Simpson, Founder & Director of Hands on Nature.

About Hands on Nature

Hands on Nature is an educational outdoor nature program available to preschool and elementary school children located in Berlin, MA. Its mission is to connect children to the natural world through educational hands-on experiences in that children will develop a renewed sense of their connection to the Earth, a deepened respect for the beauty of the natural world, and a sense of their place in it.
